Dear Juan David,

We are delighted to confirm the details of your University of Liverpool International Scholarship.

This award is made on the basis that you are classified as an overseas student and therefore eligible to pay tuition fees at the overseas rate.

- The University of Liverpool International Scholarship is valued at 25 per cent of the annual tuition fees for your chosen course (MSc Evolutionary Psychology).

You will receive the tuition fee reduction starting in September 2008 and for each year of study, subject to good academic progress (normally a minimum 60% average each year): -

- Tuition fees reduced from £11,650 to £8,738 per year.

You will be able to hold this award in addition to your International Advancement Award. This is £1,000 fee reduction, guaranteed regardless of grades and will be automatically be deducted from your tuition fees for each year of your studies* : -

- Tuition fees reduced from £8,738 to £7737.5 per year.

A letter confirming the above details will be sent to you by post as soon as possible.

I should like to offer you many congratulations on receiving this award. I look forward to seeing you in Liverpool in September.

Yours sincerely,

Ursula Henry

Director

International Office

* The following applicants do not qualify for the International Advancement Award:

1. Undergraduate students joining clinical programmes within the Faculty of Medicine, the School of Dentistry or the Faculty of Veterinary Science;
